

AFTER SUNDAY

Mayor Clark Wants the Sunday Law Enforced.

MESSAGE TO THE COUNCIL SUGGESTS PASSAGE OF AN ORDINANCE.

Would Require Drink Dispensers to Put in Clear Glass Fronts and Leave Their Curtains Open On Sunday so That Passers Can See Whether or Not They Are Open.

Mayor Clark is on the warpath against saloon men who are alleged to be violating the ordinance which requires them to keep their places of business closed on Sunday and other specified days. Last night the executive sent a special message to the council covering his ideas, and asked that an ordinance along the same lines be introduced.

Mayor's Message.

Mayor Clark's communication follows: To the Honorable City Council, Gentlemen:

I understand that the license law which prohibits the keeping open of saloons on the Sabbath day is being violated, and that such violations are being committed in such a manner as to be a serious nuisance to the community. It is my duty to bring this matter to the attention of the council, and to request that they take prompt action to enforce the law. I am sure that the council will sympathize with the people of this city who are suffering from the nuisance caused by the violation of the law, and will take the necessary steps to bring about its enforcement.

As a further protection against violations of the license law, I am recommending that the council pass an ordinance requiring that all saloons have their curtains open on Sunday and other specified days, so that the public can see whether or not they are open.

I also suggest that the license law be amended so as to require that all saloons have their drink dispensers in clear glass fronts, so that the public can see whether or not they are open.

The ordinance offered by Mayor Clark covers every violation of the law, and it is my hope that the council will pass it without delay.

The ordinance offered by Mayor Clark covers every violation of the law, and it is my hope that the council will pass it without delay.

City Attorney Hall reported an offer made by the attorneys for J. H. Griffin, who had been indicted for the violation of the law, to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

This is a reduction of more than a thousand dollars in interest and costs. Attorney Hall wrote that under the recent decision of the supreme court the only question involved was to how much the city owes Griffin. He recommended that the offer be referred to an appropriate committee. It went to the committee on municipal laws.

Protest of West Siders. A protest signed by W. A. Hodges, J. E. O'Connell, J. Lawrence, and others, was presented to the council, asking that the city take action to stop the violation of the law.

The committee on improvements recommended the placing of a light on the corner of Third North and Eighth West streets, on the corner of Third North and Ninth South streets, and on the corner of Third North and Tenth South streets.

Special Police Named. Chief Hilton reported the appointment of J. E. Moore as special policeman without pay. The rules were suspended and the appointment confirmed.

Threatened to Shoot. Patrick, at the close of the meeting, called up the report of the street committee relative to the B street grade which had been laid out at the last meeting.

After some discussion the report was adopted. It recommends that the present grade be the established grade, and that the street be widened to make the street conform to the general contour of the surrounding area.

Officer Arrived in Time to Prevent a Homicide. Ed Brown and Tom Wilson, colored men, engaged in an altercation on Commercial street at 8 o'clock last night that might have resulted seriously, but for the appearance of Officer Brown. According to spectators, Brown, who is a strapping big fellow, approached Wilson, a smaller man, and with a few words started to talk about shooting.

"I've a notion to shoot you right now," he declared, fumbling in his pocket, and Wilson told him to go ahead and shoot, striking him with a cane by way of emphasis.

The big man's order considerably altered the attitude of the patrolman, and Brown and Wilson ran around the corner of Madison street, where they were picked up. Brown is in the employ of L. F. Harr.

WELLER INTRODUCES A RESOLUTION OF DISMISSAL.

Weller Introduces a Resolution of Dismissal.

FAILED BY FOUR VOTES

COUNCIL ENGAGES IN A WARM DEBATE.

Outspoken Criticism of the City Engineer by Callister, Who Declared the Official Should Have Been Discharged Last Summer On the Ground of Incompetence.

If four additional votes could have been secured for a resolution introduced by Weller at last night's meeting of the council, Salt Lake City would be today without an engineer. Mr. Weller's resolution provided for the summary dismissal of Mr. Kelsey, and the argument thereon was about as interesting as any debate the council has had in a long time.

The resolution was introduced as a result of a communication sent to Mr. Kelsey. In it he stated that he was unable to present a report on his water investigations at last night's meeting, as ordered. He specifically pointed out, however, that the Mill Creek end of his report would be ready next Tuesday night and the Big Cottonwood end by Dec. 12. The engineer added that all other work in his office had been suspended and that every energy was being put into getting out the reports.

Mr. Weller's Resolution. The letter was laid over to come up under the head of miscellaneous business. When it was reached under that head, Robertson moved that the communication be filed. Before a vote could be taken Weller introduced his resolution, which was as follows:

"Whereas, said city engineer has willfully and intentionally failed and neglected to comply with the said requests and orders of this council; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the city council of Salt Lake City, that P. C. Kelsey, city engineer, be and he is hereby discharged from the service of said city and from his said position as city engineer of Salt Lake City."

The Debate Begins. Debate on the resolution was beginning, when Robertson made the point of order that the council was not in session, and that the engineer's communication had the right of way. The point was declared to be well taken and the motion was adopted.

Then the resolution was taken up. Weller was the first to speak. In support of the resolution he said that the tactics of the city engineer had been dilatory. He did not believe Mr. Kelsey was a competent engineer, and he thought the council owed it to its constituents to discharge him.

Buckle, speaking against the resolution, declared that the reason the Democratic candidate had run behind the ticket was the fight that had been made on the engineer. He said that Democrats in his precinct had declared that they would vote for Kelsey because of the attacks on Kelsey. "We ought to 'old the resolution in 'bayance until next week, anyway," Buckle concluded. "I will be willing to vote on it."

Callister Was Energetic. Callister's remarks were energetic and to the point. "There is no question in my mind," he said, "but that the engineer has tried to evade reporting to this body. That is my opinion and my belief. I don't believe the engineer is perfect by any manner of means. He has been arrogant and arbitrary and has not showed to certain members of the council the respect which he owes them."

Still, I am in favor of granting him a little further time, but if he doesn't make a complete report by Dec. 12, let us take his head off. He is a little fellow, but he is a little fellow who has never had any desire to fight the engineer, and expressed the belief that he would not. He has been a little fellow who has never had any desire to fight the engineer, and expressed the belief that he would not.

Robertson also was willing to give Kelsey a little more time. He explained that he did not like the way the engineer had treated the council and thought he had never intended to make any report to the present administration.

Morris Loses Confidence. "When we have been promised a thing so many times and have failed to receive it," said Morris, "we lose confidence in the individual who makes the promises. I feel that the council has been trifled with by the city engineer. I feel that he has defied us, and I believe he has never intended to report to us, but it may be that he intends to keep his word this time and I am willing to wait. But if he fails to report, let us take his head off."

Patrick wished to deny that the Democrats of the council had been fighting Mr. Kelsey. Incidentally, in his talk, he referred to the hindering behavior of the council by the engineer some months ago and expressed a very uncomplimentary opinion of it. In conclusion Patrick asked Weller as an act of courtesy to say that he was not for the present. Then came Robertson's turn.

Remarks By Robertson. "Mr. Kelsey is not in need of charity from you or from anybody else," he said. "Kelsey is a man who has always proved himself a man. I say that because he considers himself infallible and that when you differ from him he takes it as a personal insult. His head should have been taken when he sent us that communication. He was asked for an apology but it hasn't been given. He shouldn't have had a chance to apologize."

Howe frankly expressed his willingness to go on record as in favor of discharging Mr. Kelsey. He certainly intended to vote for the resolution and sincerely hoped it would be adopted.

Weller closed the debate with a little talk in which he said that he thought the council was deserving of censure for not taking action of this nature before.

Resolution Voted Down. The vote was taken on the resolution without further debate except that Romney said when he voted that he was strongly disapproved of the engineer's dictatorial methods and that if he didn't report fully by December 12, he would

CASE AGAINST GRAHAM

PLEA OF NOT GUILTY ENTERED BY ATTORNEY.

Graham's Trial Will Be Set Although Two Important Witnesses Can't Be Found—Young Burglars and Thieves Before Judge Norrell—Abe Hunter Cleared.

Judge Norrell opened the fall term of the criminal court yesterday by sentencing Andy Colton to a term of three years in the state prison. The charge pending against him was assaulting Aaron Farr, Jr., with intent to murder.

Colton, on the plea of his attorney, George Sutherland, obtained County Attorney Putnam's consent to permit the defendant to plead guilty to assault with a deadly weapon. In this the court acquiesced, and time for sentence was set for Monday.

The offense for which Colton was arraigned occurred in front of the New York Cash store on Main street Sunday evening, Sept. 3, when he shot at Farr, a young Ogden lawyer. Farr had been on the streets in company with George Jackson, an Illinois volunteer passing through to his home, and the two were introduced to Mrs. Colton, formerly Susie Wray, a bride of only five weeks. Louise and May Denter, new found acquaintances of the soldier, made the introduction.

Colton had been dogging the footsteps of his young wife, and while the pleasant function was going on rushed up and fired his pistol into Farr's face. The bullet went through the lawyer's hat.

Colton is the man who killed Pat O'Connell a dozen years ago in Beaver county and was sent up for fifteen years. A couple of years ago he was pardoned and got the job of taking care of the federal court rooms.

NEW MAYOR'S APPOINTMENTS

ACCURACY OF THE HERALD'S FORECAST CONCEDED.

Williams and Appleby Change Places—Clamor For Waterworks Job Interests Many.

The publication in yesterday's Herald of Mayor-elect Thompson's state of probable appointees to the soil places in his administration spread a feeling of gloom among the disappointed ones and a sentiment of joy among the successful ones.

A modification of the list would place W. P. Appleby's name where A. L. Williams stood for sanitary inspector and the latter in for oil inspector.

Appleby's well known dislike for fossil oil is believed to have had something to do with his determination to seek the sanitary inspectorship in preference to any other plum within his reach.

It is again asserted by the curbstone politicians who have thus far spoken with the assurance of friends who have been wrong, that A. F. Doremus can have the waterworks superintendency by merely nodding the head as one would do by standing by the side of Ezra buying boots at the race track.

While the agitation is going on in Doremus' favor Sam Westerfield is willing to have it understood that he could do no better in the way of building up party fences than to make him superintendent, and at the more reasonable salary of $14,000 a year.

A. F. Lawrence takes exception to the published statement that he is a candidate for appointment to the office of superintendent of waterworks. While not denying that he looks like a candidate, Mr. Lawrence declares he has poured cold water on every move made in his behalf by his friends.

The Herald's statement was made on the authority of one of Mr. Lawrence's friends who last week was urging him to become a candidate for the office.

BAD BOYS WILL REFORM.

On Promise to Be Good Judge Norrell Shows Mercy.

Arthur Moyer and John Magenetti, two wayward lads who have had a penchant for housebreaking and thievery, were brought before Judge Norrell yesterday to show cause why they should not be committed to the state reform school. The offense which they were alleged to explain was the looting of Gallacher's trunk store a couple of weeks ago.

Neither of the boys is 12 years of age, and Judge Norrell expressed the hope that something could be done to reform them without resort to the agency of a penal institution. Moyer's father promised to take his boy to a farm near Denver and there strive to train him as a good boy should be, and Magenetti and his mother promised he would be good at home. On these representations the court suspended sentence on the boys.

Abe Hunter Cleared.

The case against Abe Hunter, convicted in a justice's court of petit larceny and appealed to the district court, was dismissed by Judge Norrell. The motion of dismissal was made by J. M. Hamilton, attorney for defendant and acquiesced in by the county attorney.

(Special Correspondence.)

Logan, Nov. 21.—This regular conference of the district judges of this state was concluded yesterday. The attendance at the meeting was good, and the conference listened to addresses by Mrs. Zina Young and Mrs. Stevens of Salt Lake. Mrs. Mary A. Mowbray, Adeline Barber and President Lucy S. Cardon of this city, President M. W. Merrill, Joseph Merrill and Orson Spauld also were present.

William Kidd was arrested yesterday on charges of assault and battery. He pleaded not guilty, claiming self defense. Fritz Jensen, a minor, was today fined $10 for being in an ill-fitted hall. Jensen was arrested about two weeks ago, but skipped to Wyoming to avoid punishment. He returned yesterday, and was promptly nabbed.

In the district court today, Charlene Hamilton and her husband, Fred, pleaded guilty to the death of Jellidiah M. Charlotte, Mary and Victor Hampton, minors. The Hamiltons were charged with the death of Jellidiah M. Charlotte, Mary and Victor Hampton, minors. The Hamiltons were charged with the death of Jellidiah M. Price, Nov. 21.—The board of county commissioners met last night in special session and created a new voting precinct at Sunnyside, to be known as precinct No. 2.

The residents of Sunnyside are petitioning to the postoffice department at Washington for a postoffice and daily mail service at the new camp and expect to have it.

The suit of Dr. A. C. Ewing against J. H. Walker and others was dismissed yesterday by Judge Cherry on motion of Dickson & Ellis, plaintiffs' attorneys.

The residents of Sunnyside are petitioning to the postoffice department at Washington for a postoffice and daily mail service at the new camp and expect to have it.

A year ago last August, Dr. Ewing, a tenant on the Ewing place, was riding down the elevator and when at the ground floor the door was opened for him to step out into the hallway. The moment he was across the threshold he suddenly dropped and the doctor was thrown to the floor. He was in his descent breaking his leg. Dr. Ewing was laid up for some time and suffered a loss of practice while his leg was mending. He brought suit to recover $3,000 damages.

Of Interest to all Women

THE REMARKABLE INCREASE IN THOSE

few years has attracted the special attention of medical men. The delicate organism of women, with its whole system is in immediate sympathy, renders her very susceptible to disease. These delicate diseases wield a modifying influence over the entire system, and for this reason symptoms that are entirely remote from the source of disturbance very often present themselves.

Every woman who is sick, weak or delicate, the result of some breaking down of her delicate organism, fully realizes the importance of a remedy that will cure such disorders. It is of those weaknesses and ailments of women, it has been said, that is the most common cause of failure in life.

Many women are unobscuredly subject to serious surgical operations that have them in the hospital for weeks, and that prove fatal as often as otherwise.

The result of Hudyen in the treatment of these delicate diseases is wonderful. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, cures female weakness and bearing down pains; it stops diarrhoea, the catarrh of the bladder, the dropsy of the abdomen, the various forms of indigestion that so often occur in these cases. No remedy on earth has met with so much success as Hudyen in the treatment of these ailments.

Hudyen has cured thousands of weak and delicate women, therefore it is not an experiment.
